THE POSSIBILITIES

Although the business is thriving, there are opportunities for a new owner to further increase sales. Expanding operating hours to open seven days a week and extending evening hours will attract more customers and drive much more YOY revenue. Additionally, obtaining a liquor license to complement the current local taps, drink offerings, and cuisine would be advantageous. The space's acoustical design and fully integrated stage make it ideal for hosting live music events, presenting another avenue to boost revenue.
